

The ABG group of companies has been active for over 50 years and is now one of the most experienced property developers in Germany. With offices in Berlin, Frankfurt, Hamburg, Cologne and Munich, we deliver high-quality projects and offer the full spectrum of services throughout the entire life cycle of a property under one roof. Our inter-disciplinary teams ensure the long-term success and superior quality of our projects.

Our growing Frankfurt-based team is looking to appoint the following permanent staff member at the earliest opportunity:

JUNIOR PROJECT DEVELOPER (M/W/D)

You will have an appropriate qualification in architecture, real estate or similar, and basic professional experience. You will be highly motivated with good communication skills, enjoy structured processes and be able to maintain composure and concentration even in challenging times. We look forward to receiving your application.

DUTIES INCLUDE:

- » Collaboration on large, high-quality office, residential and mixed-use development projects in major German cities
- » Providing pro-active day-to-day support to the head of project development and the senior project managers (including the preparation of documents and presentations, deadline management and correspondence)
- » Preparation for consultation meetings with technical authorities, site purchase negotiations and lease and purchase contract negotiations
- » Providing an interface between senior management, internal departments and external service providers
